DRW Life Skills Institute nominated for the Don Quijote Awards

Kissimmee, Fla – (Aug. 10, 2015) - DRW Life Skills Institute has been nominated for the prestigious 18th Annual Don Quijote Awards in the category of Hispanic Business of the Year, Five Years or Less.

The Don Quijote Award is the highest honor for local Hispanic professionals and entrepreneurs. The Don Quijote Awards Gala – being held this year Dec. 12 at Epcot’s World Showcase Pavilion – is the premier event recognizing distinguished Hispanic community members who have excelled in their business or profession and given back to the Central Florida community, making it a better place to live.

Dr.Wanda Bonet-Gascot, (“Dr.W”) founder and coaching school director at DRW Life Skills Institute, acknowledged the contributions to her business by the Hispanic Business Initiative Fund of Florida (HBIF), the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro Orlando (HCCMO), the University of Central Florida Business Incubation Program, and the Florida Small Business Development Center (SBDC) in helping the establishment of a foundation for growth. She is grateful for their support, coaching and mentoring.

"Our amazing team is committed to bringing the education and tools to individuals who want to serve others facilitating the process of defining their goals, designing strategic plans and monitoring their progress in any of the eight areas of holistic health," indicated Dr.W.

"DRW Life Skills Institute is the best emotional intelligence education provider and coaching school that I've found in Central Florida. Their program and support is excellent," said Claudia Sanoja, a coaching school graduate.

About the UCF Business Incubation Program

The University of Central Florida Business Incubation Program is a community resource that provides early-stage companies with the tools, training and infrastructure to become financially stable, high growth / impact enterprises. Since 1999, this award-winning program has helped hundreds of local startup companies reach their potential faster by providing vital business development resources.

With seven facilities throughout the region, the UCF Business Incubation Program is an economic development partnership between the University of Central Florida, the Corridor, Orange, Osceola, Seminole and Volusia Counties, and the cities of Apopka, Kissimmee, Orlando and Winter Springs. Participating companies sustain more than 3,600 local jobs and have had a total impact of $1.51 Billion on regional sales and $2.48 Billion on regional economic output. During the last fiscal year, the program has returned $7.95 for every $1.00 invested in the program.
